to me

Mr. Bullen,

Column D is the date that the clerk scheduled the hearing. Column F is the date that the clerk scheduled the hearing for.

In other words, for case number 001901685, the clerk would have sat down to schedule the hearing on February 9th, and the date of that hearing was scheduled to be March 19th.

You can assume that the hearing was held unless it was cancelled, and the date the hearing was cancelled will show up in Column E. So for case number case number 001901685, the hearing was never cancelled, so it was actually held on March 19th.

By contrast, for case number 001912991, the hearing was scheduled to be August 27th, but it was cancelled on August 18th, as shown by Column E.

In our system, Evidentiary Hearings and Preliminary Hearings are distinct hearing types. What is provided on the prior Excel sheet are the Evidentiary Hearings that were scheduled after a Preliminary Hearing was scheduled.

Let us know if you have further questions.

Thank you,
Court Services
